The Boca Raton housing market was characterized by rising prices and a faster market pace.

Across the overall market, price trend indicators for condos and single family houses moved higher than their year-ago levels. Median sales price for condos rose 6.3% to $220,000 and median sales price for single families increased 5.9% to $457,500. Average sales price and average price per square foot followed the same pattern. The luxury condo market, representing the top 10% of all condo sales followed a similar pattern. Luxury condo median sales price surged 24.8% to $1,051,250 aided by a 13.5% rise in average sales size to 2,931 square feet. The remaining luxury price trend indicators also rose sharply. In the luxury single family market, the average sales size slipped 0.4% to 7,110 square feet and as a result, the luxury median sales price slipped 4.8% to $1,900,000 and luxury average sales price rose 1.8% suggesting market trends are stable. Unlike the overall market, luxury listing inventory fell as older supply was cleared from the market. The largest drop was seen in the luxury condo market, which fell 21.1% to 243 from the year ago quarter.

LUXURY

- Condo price trends surged as sales sized jumped
- Condo listing inventory declined as days on market shows old supply clearing
- Single-family price trends remained mixed as sales slipped
- Single-family listing inventory continued to fall
