Sales in the Boca Raton housing market fell short of year-ago levels although pending sales suggest the second quarter will see year over year gains. Condo sales declined 10.1% to 639 and single-family sales decreased 7% to 543 respectively from the same period last year. Total pending sales for both property types combined were up 6% with all of the growth being seen within the single-family market. This pattern is consistent with inventory trends as condo inventory rose 3.3% to 1,539 and single-family inventory fell 2% to 1,397 respectively from the prior-year quarter.

The absorption rate, the number of months to sell all listing inventory at the current rate of sales, for condos slowed 14.3% and for single families slowed 5.5% from the year-ago period. Condo median sales price jumped 15% to $215,000 over the same period, the highest level reached in more than eight years. Single-family median sales price slipped 1.1% to $430,000 from the prior year quarter but was the second highest median sales price for a first quarter in eleven years. The luxury market, representing the top 10% of sales showed disparity between the condo and single-family markets by inventory. Luxury condo inventory expanded 30.5%, and luxury single-family inventory fell 25.8% as overprice listings exited the market.

LUXURY

- Condo price trends were mixed as inventory expanded
- Condo sales marketing time shortened as negotiability stabilized
- Single-family price trends were mixed despite sharp decline in supply
- Single-family marketing time tightened as negotiability edged nominally higher
