Most price trend indicators in Boca Raton were above year ago levels. Single family average sales price rose 7.9% to $708,396 and median sales price increased 3.8% to $415,000.

Although the condo market showed mixed results with a 13.2% decline in median sales price to $165,000, there was a 3.9% increase in average sales price to $315,048. The median sales price for both property types in the luxury market, representing the top 10% of all sales, outperformed the overall market. Median sales price for luxury condos jumped 21.4% to $1,050,000 and luxury single families increased 4.5% to $2,195,000 respectively over the same period. Despite the rise in prices, the pace of the market slowed as inventory growth exceeded sales gains and negotiability between buyers and sellers expanded. The absorption rate, the number of months to sell all inventory at the current rate of sales, showed larger increases in the luxury market than the overall market. The absorption rate for the luxury condo market surged 52.6% to 11.9 months and the luxury single family market increased 15.3% to 15.1 months respectively from the year ago quarter. The listing discount, the percent change from the last price change to the sales price, edged higher across property types for both the overall and luxury markets.

LUXURY

- Price trends posted strong gains across property types
- Slower marketing times and expanded negotiability
- A rise in supply from year ago levels
- Pace of the luxury market slowed
